

MORNING ANNOUNCEMENTS

February 7, 2019 Thursday A Day

- The Spanish Honor Society is selling beautiful, colorful Pulsera bracelets for $5 and Bolsita Purses for $10 in the front lobby every morning, from 7:00-7:20 now through February 14th. Come out and help us support artists in Central America!
- Wolverine RPG Club will end at 4:30pm today. Please make necessary arrangements.
- Last night the Boys Basketball team travelled to Woodlawn high for their contest. The JV team won 68-46 and were led by Charles Neverdon with 22 points, Donovan Leak with 20 and some crazy assists, as well as Jalen Williams with 18 points. The Varsity team was not able to overcome Woodlawn's tough press and lost in a tough matchup. However, Walter Carr set school history for points scored in a single. Walter scored 33 points and this was his second game with 30 or more. He is currently averaging 17 points per game and has the potential to be an all-county player as a junior Congrats Walter and keep up the great work!
- Are you interested in coming out for track and field this spring? Well join us for our morning interest meeting next week Tuesday at 7:10 in room 304. Once again, all those looking to come out for track and field this spring, come join us for our interest meeting this coming Tuesday at 7:10 in room 304
- It's Black History Month! This month BSA would like to inform you about the myriad trailblazers who represent the magnets and content areas in our school. Today we head over to Social Studies to take a look at a trailblazer whose work helped bring about social change. John Mercer Langston was the first black man to become a lawyer when he passed the bar in Ohio in 1854. When he was elected to the post of Town Clerk for Brownhelm, Ohio, in 1855 Langston became one of the first African Americans ever elected to public office in America. John Mercer Langston was also the great-uncle of Langston Hughes, famed poet of the Harlem Renaissance.

- There is an important SASA Meeting TODAY after school at 2:10pm.
- The deadline to order the 2019 yearbook is February 15th. This year we will have a very limited number of yearbooks available for cash sale in May; therefore, it's important to place your on-line order for your yearbook by the February 15th date. The price is $70 plus tax. To place your yearbook order, go to the Western Tech website and click on the yearbook web banner, which is located on bottom right hand side of the homepage. If you have any questions concerning the yearbook, please feel free to contact our yearbook advisor, Mr. Adelung via email at jdelung@bcps.org.
- Juniors, if you are interested in joining the National Technical Honor Society, you have until this Friday, February 8th, to turn in your paperwork into Mr. Kather in room 231. If you need the application form, you can get one from your magnet teacher or from Mr. Kather.
- Are you looking for something to do before the boys basketball game on Friday? Are you down for celebrating Black History Month? FBLA is ghosting Free Movie Night showing "Hidden Figures." There will be food combos and cool souvenir cups. So show up and show out with us this Friday at 2:30pm.
- Attention all FALL athletes. The fall sports awards will be held in the gym on Tuesday, February 12th at 6:00pm.
- Do you find yourself struggling in French class? Well, have no fear because French Tutoring is here! Available both A and B days during various lunches. Don't wait until it's too late! Make life easier for yourself. Give yourself a break. The National French Honor Society is here to help. Sign up outside of room 200.
- ASA is holding its next meeting TODAY after school from 2:30pm to 3:30pm. All are welcome and we hope to see you there!!!

- Seniors! Are you getting excited to graduate in June? Well, for some of you who haven't bought your cap & gown yet, you will NOT be walking across the stage! Please order your cap & gown by following the instructions on the green flyer that you received at the Senior Meeting in December. Sorry – you gotta pay the higher price of $35. Write yourself a note RIGHT NOW! In April, the company will no longer accept orders. Hurry up and get on it!

SAT Word of the week

REPRIEVE (pronounced: “reh-PREEVE” or “ree-PREEVE”) – a noun meaning “a break, pause, or rest; a temporary let off)

“Students woke up and checked twitter, BCPSOne, and the news, all hoping for a snowstorm to offer a REPRIEVE from schoolwork.”
