

MORNING ANNOUNCEMENTS

April 10, 2019 Wednesday B Day

- Western Tech's PTSA is hosting its annual Yankee Candle Fundraiser. Yankee Candle Fundraising has something for everyone, including a variety of candles, décor, home, and kitchen products. Please consider this worthwhile fundraiser as it supports events, such as Western Tech PTSA workshops, the After-Prom Party, Scholarships, and more. To participate, follow the directions included in your Yankee Candle packet which was distributed Tuesday in school. Simply place your order online or bring in your order form and money to the main office. Orders are due no later than April 19th. Seniors, there is an added incentive. If you sell $150 worth of Yankee Candle products, you can earn two free After Prom Tickets.
- The Anime Club meeting for today is cancelled. We will meet again next Wednesday.
- The library will be closed today during lunches due to a scheduled class.
- Attention Students and teachers: This is a just a reminder that we will have visitors here at Western Tech tomorrow for the magnet schools of America conference. There will be two large tour groups- one at 8:00am and another at 10:45am. They will be visiting classrooms.
- The Varsity softball team improved its record to 6 and 1 with a dominating 19-9 win over Parkville yesterday. Player of the game Deandra Zehner was a demon on the base paths stealing 6 base and chipping in 3 hits. Other outstanding performances were contributed from Mimi Troung and Lauren Michael who both hit moon shot home runs. Kayla Jenkins had a great game behind the dish as well as 3 hits. Great game ladies!

- The girls varsity lacrosse team won a tense defensive struggle yesterday defeating Dundalk 4-2. Player of the game Briajah Blackwell earned 6 grounders, 1 forced turnover, and was a defensive powerhouse. Lefty Keiran Ray scored 2 goals, Ceana Cha and Kaiya Fox each added 1 goal and Angela Beverly added an assist. Defense standout Kryz Johnson earned 8 ground balls and a forced turnover. Good work team! Come cheer at CCBC on Friday as the girls face Sparrows Point!
- Attention SkillsUSA Members- Our meeting today is for members participating in competitions. If you are participating, you must attend. This is our last meeting before the State Championship on Friday & Saturday. See you there.
- Congratulations to Jayshon Grandy, Bernyce Gamolo, and Falon Gustin for being selected finalists in the 2019 BCPS Film EXPO. Their Gifs and films will be screened at the historic Senator Theatre on May 9th!
- Attention students: Johns Hopkins University is having an exciting opportunity for Baltimore area high school students this weekend called Splash! Splash is a nationwide program in which high school students are invited to college campuses to attend unique classes taught by undergraduates. The Hopkins chapter is hosting an event on Saturday, April 13th, on the Homewood campus. Stop by the office to pick up a flyer with more information on how to sign up.
- Attention WT seniors: There will be a final dues drive this week. Remember, you must pay your dues in full before you can purchase a prom ticket. Please take advantage of this opportunity.
- Get your Western Tech bottle and support Kennedy Krieger's kids! The Western Tech Future Health Professionals are selling Western Tech bottles for $6. You can see Ms. Birago before or after school in Room 215 to make your purchase. Thank you!
- Attention all juniors: Junior prom tickets are on sale! The ticket prices is $40 per ticket. If you plan to attend you can buy it from Ms. Johnson or Ms. Higgins before school, during lunches, or after school.
- Christian Club will be meeting this Friday at 7:00am in Mr. Saulsbury's room 208. All are welcome. Please come by to worship with fellow Christians or simply learn about the faith. Bring your friends.

SAT Word of the week

EPISTOLARY (pronounced: "EP-ist-OH-larry") - an adjective meaning "in the form of letters or notes; made up of letters between people”

“The book I’m reading is a mostly EPISTOLARY novel in which the conflict is developed through letters back and forth between people who never meet.”