

MORNING ANNOUNCEMENTS

April 11, 2019 Thursday A Day

- Western Tech's PTSA is hosting its annual Yankee Candle Fundraiser. Yankee Candle Fundraising has something for everyone, including a variety of candles, décor, home, and kitchen products. Please consider this worthwhile fundraiser as it supports events, such as Western Tech PTSA workshops, the After-Prom Party, Scholarships, and more. To participate, follow the directions included in your Yankee Candle packet which was distributed Tuesday in school. Simply place your order online or bring in your order form and money to the main office. Orders are due no later than April 19th. Seniors, there is an added incentive. If you sell $150 worth of Yankee Candle products, you can earn two free After Prom Tickets.
- The library will be closed today due to a scheduled class.
- The boys lacrosse team defeated Dundalk yesterday by a score of 12-5. Freshman Josh Martinez led the offense with 4 goals and 3 assists while the rest of the offense came from goals score by Jacob Wallman, Justin Maddox, and Rebin Vithayathil. An outstanding defensive performance was turned in by Xavier Fair, Nelson Bracamonte, and Alfred Murdock. Come out Friday to see the boys and girls play Sparrows Point in a double-header at CCBC Catonsville.
- There will be no RPG club today. We will resume next week.
- Today is Taste it Thursday in the cafeteria! Today's food to try is Edamame. Edamame is just another name for boiled soybeans. They are rich in protein, dietary fiber, folate, manganese, phosphorus, and Vitamin K. Try them in the cafeteria today during your lunch. Students with soy allergies should avoid.
- Robotics club will meet today in room 225 from 2:15pm to 3:30pm.

- Attention Spanish Honor Society Members: Tomorrow's meeting on Thursday April 11 has been canceled. See you on April 25!
- Attention students: Johns Hopkins University is having an exciting opportunity for Baltimore area high school students this weekend called Splash! Splash is a nationwide program in which high school students are invited to college campuses to attend unique classes taught by undergraduates. The Hopkins chapter is hosting an event on Saturday, April 13th, on the Homewood campus. Stop by the office to pick up a flyer with more information on how to sign up.
- Attention WT seniors: There will be a final dues drive this week. Remember, you must pay your dues in full before you can purchase a prom ticket. Please take advantage of this opportunity.
- Get your Western Tech bottle and support Kennedy Krieger's kids! The Western Tech Future Health Professionals are selling Western Tech bottles for $6. You can see Ms. Birago before or after school in Room 215 to make your purchase. Thank you!
- Attention all juniors: Junior prom tickets are on sale! The ticket price is $40 per ticket. If you plan to attend you can buy it from Ms. Johnson or Ms. Higgins before school, during lunches, or after school.
- Christian Club will be meeting this Friday at 7:00am in Mr. Saulsbury's room 208. All are welcome. Please come by to worship with fellow Christians or simply learn about the faith. Bring your friends.

SAT Word of the week

EPISTOLARY (pronounced: "EP-ist-OH-larry") - an adjective meaning "in the form of letters or notes; made up of letters between people"

"The book I'm reading is a mostly EPISTOLARY novel in which the conflict is developed through letters back and forth between people who never meet."
