

MORNING ANNOUNCEMENTS

May 10, 2019 Friday B Day

- National French Contest winners please come to room 200 at 7:20 on Monday (A day) for a group picture and to receive your medals.
- Attention 9th, 10th, and 11th graders: The time has come for you to step up and serve your class! Anyone interested in running for their class council for the 2019-2020 school year can pick up Class Officer Application in the Main Office. To run for office, you must write an essay explaining why you are qualified for the position and have 2 letters of recommendations. Applications will be available now through the end of next week, and they are due to Ms. Cabot by TUESDAY May 21st.
- Pull an all-nighter After Prom with a party at AMF Bowling Lanes. There will be more than bowling. Photo booth anyone? Tickets are only $20.00 on sale this week. Not going to Prom? No problem. All seniors are welcome!
- Celebrate the end of the year and support the PTSA by going to Sweet Frog on Tuesday, May 14th. Flyers are available in the main office and on Western Tech website under "Families" then "PTSA."
- AP World review has been rescheduled to TODAY after school in room 305 from 2:10-3:10pm.
- Attention all students, especially seniors: during the summer, the files that you have on your BCPS (H &) L drives will be deleted! If you have important files, you need to back them up NOW on your own USB drive or external hard drive before they are lost forever. Seniors, your Microsoft OneDrive account will cease to operate within the next several days, so please back up those files, too.

Seniors, any Microsoft Office products that BCPS allowed you to download will also cease to operate, unless you wish to purchase your own subscription.
Students, please save your files NOW.

- Attention students! The yearbooks are in! Students who pre-ordered yearbooks should go see Mr. Adelung in room 227 in the morning before school or during your lunch shift to pick up your yearbook. There will be a limited number of remaining yearbooks for sale for seniors next Tuesday, May 14th in the lobby before school and again in the lobby at 10:30am. Yearbooks cost $75.
- Attention all Western Tech athletes!! The Western Tech Booster Club is having an end-of-the-year sports picnic for all athletes and their families. Grab a flier in the office for all the details.
- Juniors, do you have a good speaking voice? Can you read important messages in a clear and enthusiastic manner? Would you like to be a Morning Announcer next year? On Wednesday, May 15 at 2pm, Professor Ruth will hold auditions for students interested in doing the morning announcements next year. Please see Professor Ruth today if you would like to sign up to audition.
- Seniors! Prom tickets are on sale through May 17th. Tickets are $50, and you can get yours from Ms. Johnson in guidance. All payments must be in cash! Thank you!
- Good news! Senior banner sales have been extended until TODAY!! The price per banner is $40.
- Seniors- submit your application for the $1000 PTSA Scholarship award. Applications are due TODAY by 2:00pm and are available on line and in the guidance office. Seniors you must be a member of the PTSA to apply, but it's not too late to become a member and be eligible for the scholarship. Information for the banners and the scholarship can be accessed through hyperlinks on our school's website <http://westernhs.bcps.org/> under the families/PTSA/miscellaneous information and forms tab.

SAT Word of the week

SANGUINE (pronounced "SANG-win") - an adjective meaning optimistic, cheerful, upbeat

"Although she had 9 AP exams coming up, including AP Physical Education and AP Lunch, Alexis was SANGUINE about her likely exam scores, because she had worked hard all year to master the material."
