

MORNING ANNOUNCEMENTS

September 9, 2019 Monday A Day

- Attention students: The library will be closed for lunches this week due to device roll-out.
- The sales of the 2020 Western Tech yearbook have started. You can preorder a yearbook on the Western Tech website. The link can be found at the bottom right side of the homepage. There will be a very limited quantity available for purchase. The only way to guarantee a copy is to preorder. The current price is $61.32 before tax. The price will increase after November 30th! So why wait? Order one today.
- Western Tech's speech and debate team will be holding its first meeting of the 2019-2020 school year on Wednesday, September 11th from 2:10-3:00pm. If you're interested in joining a team of medal winners and state champions, be sure to come to room 305. See you there!
- Congratulations to Andrew Rankin for becoming A+ certified. He is the first student to pass the 1001 and the 1002. When you see him in the hall, encourage him to keep up the good work.
- The Anime Club will have its first meeting of the year on Wednesday until 3:30p in room 106.
- Students, this week you will receive your BCPS ProBook and power cord during your English class. Seniors and juniors will receive them on Monday and Tuesday, and sophomores and freshmen on Wednesday and Thursday. Please bring your BCPS OneCard ID badge; upperclassmen, you need to bring the blue bag and strap (that you laundered over the summer) so that the ProBook will be protected. We'll see you next week with your ID card and protective blue bag.
- The girls soccer team began their season in style with a 4-1 victory over Owings Mills. Freshman phenom Alyssa Roland contributed 3 goals and an assist while fellow freshman Efua Amoa had a goal and an assist. Senior Captain Anh Thu Le also had an assist while junior Liz Ott led the defense in shutting down the Owings Mills attack. Come see the Wolverines as they take on Lansdowne at Catonsville Middle School tomorrow, Tuesday, September 10th.

- The First SASA meeting is after school on Wednesday, September 11th in room 219. All members wanting to be officers must be present.
- Picture day is coming! On Friday, September 20th and Monday, September 23rd, students will have pictures taken during social studies classes

SAT Word of the Week

“Anecdote”—a noun, meaning a short, interesting story or example, often used to illustrate a point

“My history teacher used the anecdote of his falling off a mountain during a marathon to illustrate the need to pay attention to small details.”
