

MORNING ANNOUNCEMENTS

April 19, 2017 Wednesday A Day

Reminder: The library will be CLOSED all next week due to PARCC testing. This includes before school and during lunches.

All SkillsUSA members competing in the state championship should attend the meeting afterschool today.

Seniors, Prom tickets will go on sale tomorrow and remain on sale each morning in the front lobby until the end of April. Tickets are $50.

Mrs. Martinez's office is now located where Mrs. Harris used to be.

Be a part of Project Clean Stream and volunteer to clean up Dead Run Stream and Dogwood Road here in Woodlawn. They need volunteers on Saturday, April 22nd from 9am to noon. See Chef C for sign-up details.

Reminder: The Backpacks of Love packing day is Tuesday, April 25th after school. If you committed to filling a backpack for a foster child, be sure to bring your items on Tuesday and plan to stay to pack your backpack.

Attendance is mandatory for the service learning hours. See Ms. Lewis or Ms. Bickerstaff with questions.

Attention seniors: Did you participate in Catonsville Rec's Basketball program for at least two years? If so, come to the guidance office to pick up a copy of a scholarship application.

Congratulations to senior Logan Young on her acceptances to Bowie State University, University of Maryland Eastern Shore, and Morgan State University.

Before spring break Western Tech AP computer science students competed in the sixth annual CCBC high school programming contest. High school teams from all over Baltimore County in Baltimore city competed to solve computer programming problems. The team of Priya Koindala, Gabby Locke and Joseph Loeb finished fourth. While the team of Kinny Page, Riley Williams, and Vivek Bannerjee finished third. Western Tech was the only school with two teams in the top five. So when you see Priya, Gabby, Joseph, Kinny, Riley, and Vivek in class be sure to congratulate them.

We will have Otaku Club TODAY afterschool! Please come by.

There will be a girls soccer information meeting on Tuesday, April 25th at 7:00am in room 101. Paperwork will be distributed. Please see Mr. Pagliarini in room 101 for details or if you cannot attend.

Juniors, prom ticket sales have been extended! They will be on sale in the morning before school downstairs until this Friday. If your guest to Junior Prom does not attend Western Tech make sure to get the paperwork completed and returned to Mrs. Streets by Friday, April 21st. If you have any questions see Mrs. Streets or Mrs. Martinez.

Juniors attending Junior Prom, please return prom court nominations to Mrs. Streets mailbox by Wednesday, April 26th! If you have any questions see Mrs. Streets or Mrs. Martinez.

Need Student Service Learning Hours? The Muscular Dystrophy Association of Greater Maryland will be having their annual Muscle Walk on April 29th, 2017 at UMBC. The MDS would like students to contact the organization directly, so see Chef Christhilf to get a flyer to get more information about how to participate and sign up for the event.

Do you like French games or want to learn them? TODAY, April 19th the New French Club will be playing Petanque (like bocce) after school along with other activities. Come to Room 200 from 2:15-3:00pm. Open to all!

SAT Word of the Week:

Choleric (adjective): extremely irritable or easily angered.

Pronounced [kol-er-ick]

“Odell Beckham, a talented yet choleric wide receiver, has gained a reputation for hurting his team with unnecessary penalties for unsportsmanlike conduct.”
