

MORNING ANNOUNCEMENTS

April 20, 2017 Thursday B Day

Attention all 10th grade students: All 10th graders will be taking the Parcc English Test next week. All 10th graders need to bring headphones for the test. We will not have headphones to give out. The test requires the use of headphones. Please make sure to bring a set of headphones on your assigned testing days. The test will take two days. A schedule will be presented during your English classes today and Friday to let you know what days you are testing and where to report. On your assigned testing date you will report directly to your assigned room by 7:30 AM.

Due to testing next week, the following classrooms will be moved to other locations in the building:

- Mr. Foster
- Mr. Lagon
- Mr. Streets
- Mr. Miller
- Ms. Bragg
- Ms. Hilaire
- Ms. Lewis

Signs will be posted in the front lobby to communicate room changes. If you have any questions or concerns about the Parcc test please see Mrs. Martinez

Wolverine RPGers: Go on Edmodo and vote for the T-shirt of your choice today!

The girls varsity lacrosse team lost its rematch against Carver, falling 11-6. Player of the game Beatrice Daudelin posted 9 saves, 2 interceptions, and 3 ground balls as goalie and player of the game Sara Mustafa sparked an early scoring run in the first half with two goals and smart offensive play. Other goals by sophomore Tiara Allen, Rumbi Mangwende, and senior Mykia Toney led the offense, and Bria Fassler and Tiara Allen each contributed assists. The midfield of Kennedy Jackson, Rumbi, Tiara, Bria, and Sade Parson played well, limited Carver's transition, while Freshman Kaiya Fox led Western's offense with her great transition play.

The GSA will hold its next meeting on Wednesday April 26th directly after school in Ms. Bauer's room. All are welcome!

Government H.S.A session will be held Thursday and Friday in room 220 from 2:10 – 3:10. We will be reviewing unit 2 and you only need to show up to one of the sessions if you are interested in reviewing unit 2.

Reminder: The library will be CLOSED all next week due to PARCC testing. This includes before school and during lunches.

Congratulations to Kevin Chen for passing the CompTia 901 industry exam. Keep up the good work!

Seniors, Prom tickets will go on sale TODAY and remain on sale each morning in the front lobby through the first week of May. Tickets are $50.

Be a part of Project Clean Stream and volunteer to clean up Dead Run Stream and Dogwood Road here in Woodlawn. They need volunteers on Saturday, April 22nd from 9am to noon. See Chef C for sign-up details.

Reminder: The Backpacks of Love packing day is Tuesday, April 25th after school. If you committed to filling a backpack for a foster child, be sure to bring your items on Tuesday and plan to stay to pack your backpack. Attendance is mandatory for the service learning hours. See Ms. Lewis or Ms. Bickerstaff with questions.

Attention seniors: Did you participate in Catonsville Rec's Basketball program for at least two years? If so, come to the guidance office to pick up a copy of a scholarship application.

Before spring break Western Tech AP computer science students competed in the sixth annual CCBC high school programming contest. High school teams from all over Baltimore County in Baltimore city competed to solve computer programming problems. The team of Priya Koindala, Gabby Locke and Joseph Loeb finished fourth. While the team of Kinny Page, Riley Williams, and Vivek Bannerjee finished third. Western Tech was the only school with two teams in the top five. So when you see Priya, Gabby, Joseph, Kinny, Riley, and Vivek in class be sure to congratulate them.

There will be a girls soccer information meeting on Tuesday, April 25th at 7:00am in room 101. Paperwork will be distributed. Please see Mr. Pagliarini in room 101 for details or if you cannot attend.

Juniors, prom ticket sales have been extended! They will be on sale in the morning before school downstairs until this Friday. If your guest to Junior Prom does not attend Western Tech make sure to get the paperwork completed and returned to Mrs. Streets by Friday, April 21st. If you have any questions see Mrs. Streets or Mrs. Martinez.

Juniors attending Junior Prom, please return prom court nominations to Mrs. Streets mailbox by Wednesday, April 26th! If you have any questions see Mrs. Streets or Mrs. Martinez.

Need Student Service Learning Hours? The Muscular Dystrophy Association of Greater Maryland will be having their annual Muscle Walk on April 29th, 2017 at UMBC. The MDS would like students to contact the organization directly, so see Chef Christhilf to get a flyer to get more information about how to participate and sign up for the event.

SAT Word of the Week:

Choleric (adjective): extremely irritable or easily angered.

Pronounced [kol-er-ick]

“Odell Beckham, a talented yet choleric wide receiver, has gained a reputation for hurting his team with unnecessary penalties for unsportsmanlike conduct.”
