MORNING ANNOUNCEMENTS

November 18, 2019   Monday B Day

➢ Time is running out! The price of the yearbook will go up after November 30th! Buy now to take advantage of the special pricing of $61.32 plus tax. Preordering your yearbook is the only way to guarantee you will get a copy of the yearbook. You can order your yearbook from the Western Tech website.

➢ Teachers: if you would be willing to share your student assistants, please send them to Mr. Pags in mod 302 to help with magnet materials- any time today from B1 through B4.

➢ Attention all winter concert performers: Please sign-up for practice times outside of room 216. Mrs. Carlino will be available after school on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday to assist with music preparation, but you must be sure to sign-up.

➢ Congrats to Western Tech’s speech and debate team for a very successful meet! Adina Ballah and Krys Johnson won a silver medal in junior varsity public forum, Alayna Radner and Grace Mattamana won a gold medal in Duo Interpretation with Grace Mattamana won 2 silver medals in Original Interpretation and in Impromptu Speech. Dunni Ojumu and Anusha Bhat also received honorable mentions in impromptu speech with Dunni receiving another honorable mention in original oratory. Meghna Chandrasekaran won a silver medal in original oratory and a gold medal in impromptu speech. Nia Sanderson also won a silver medal in Impromptu speech. Great job team. Next practice is Tuesday, 11/26.

➢ The College Readiness Club will be meeting Tuesday, November 19th from 2:15pm to 3:00pm in the Library. At this meeting, we will be talking about transcripts, financial aid and Naviance, so please bring your devices! All students are welcome!

➢ If you took the SAT test, scored 1000 or higher, and would like your photo displayed in the hallway, see Ms. Monahan in the Guidance Office before school or during lunch tp have your photo taken for the “SAT All-Stars” bulletin board.

SAT Word of the Week
EGALITARIAN: an adjective meaning “without class distinction; equitable”

“Many social justice activists would like to create a more EGALITARIAN society in which people have access to basic needs”