Dear AP Students:

First of all, I hope you and your families are safe and healthy during these unprecedented times. There are a lot of unknowns and being out of school for this long can bring on new stressors and unfamiliar feelings. Please reach out to your school counselor through Schoology if you find yourself feeling isolated, anxious, or just want to touch base.

I would like to encourage you to continue to study for your AP exams and do the best you can. I know you are a group of intrinsically motivated and hardworking students. However, if at this time you have changed your mind about taking any AP test, it is okay! We support your decision.

I want to highlight some new information that College Board has released that is important for you to know:

- New exam dates are May 11th through May 22nd. Click on the link to see the full schedule of exams: <https://apcoronavirusupdates.collegeboard.org/educators/taking-the-exams/ap-exam-schedule>
- If you have testing accommodations, they are built into the exam (extended time, breaks, etc)
- If you decide to not take the exam, your $40 deposit fee will be refunded in June (keep in mind, you have up until the day before the exam to decide)
- You will take your exams on a device at home
- If you have questions about accessing a device, click on this link: <https://collegeboard.tfaforms.net/74>

- There will be no multiple choice questions, only free response questions, and it is open note and open book

If you still owe AP exam money, you will be able to pay online. You will be receiving an email from me with payment instructions and the amount you owe.

College Board will be reaching out to you via email with more information regarding your AP exams. Information regarding exam payment will be coming from us. If you have questions, feel free to contact me or Ms. Monahan. We are always here to support you!
